The screenshot shows the homepage of the Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) website. The browser address bar displays "https://fafsa.ed.gov". The page features a navigation menu with links for Home, About Us, FSA ID, StudentAid.gov, and Help. A search bar is located in the top right corner. The main heading reads "Get help paying for college" with a sub-heading "Submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)". Below this, there are two columns: "New to the FAFSA?" with a "Start A New FAFSA" button, and "Returning User?" with a "Login" button and a list of actions: "Make a correction", "Add a school", and "View your Student Aid Report (SAR), and more...". At the bottom, there are sections for "Deadlines" and "Announcements".

Announcements

- Use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (IRS DRT) to update your FAFSA with IRS tax return information. If you have already submitted a FAFSA and would like to use the IRS DRT, click Login to start a correction. Once in the FAFSA, navigate to the "Finances" section, where the option to use the IRS DRT displays for eligible students and parents.
